Casa di Monti

Monti, Gaiole in Chianti Tuscany, Italy

Situated in the heart of Chianti, Casa di Monti - made up of the charming Porcinaia, Capanna and the main house - is finished to the very highest standard, produces its own wine and is lucky enough to have a fantastic cook Situated in the heart of Chianti, Casa di Monti enjoys outstanding views as well as every comfort one could wish for. With every detail thought of by its delightful owner, at Casa di Monti one can relax in the extremely peaceful and attractive surroundings whilst enjoying a glass of local Chianti and a delicious dinner cooked by Delia, the superb local cook.

The main house comfortably sleeps eight whilst La Porcinaia and La Capanna provide separate but equally comfortable accommodation in the immaculate and childfriendly gardens - ideal for a re-union of friends or families who can have their own space and then join together for meals under the loggia of the main house.

Extremely tasteful furnishings of the best quality have been used and the views from each property are fabulous. Outside, the large pool with electric cover is ideal for children as well as keeping the water warm for those who love an early morning dip and the pool house is equipped with shower and towels to provide every comfort.

With all the delights of Chianti such as historic Siena, Florence and San Gimignano within easy reach Casa di Monti is a very special find indeed. The combination of top quality accommodation, mouth-watering local Italian food and wine and a large swimming pool surrounded by really delightful gardens combine to provide a villa which many guests love to return to each summer.
