

HOTEL ALPENROSE

ARABBA
ITALIAN
DOLOMITES

With its striking views of the splendid Dolomites from every angle, Hotel Alpenrose is the much loved property of one of the extraordinarily talented Delmonego brothers of Arabbia. Guests return here year after year in summer and winter - a highly desirable destination for a family ski trip as well as a summer hiking vacation.

Situated just above the main village of Arabba, with ski in ski out access and panoramic views to the Sella Group, Portovesco and Col di Lana, Hotel Alpenrose has been established since 2003 after an admirable and ambitious project of the Delmonego family. Built in the classic tradition of the Italian Dolomites to the very highest standards and with great care and consideration for the environment and all things ecological, the Alpenrose feels not just like a hotel but also like a real home.

There is a total of 27 rooms and suites of a variety of categories and each with its own individual particularities. In the classic Dolomiti style, the quality of both interiors and finishings is very high, the attention to cleanliness and efficiency of the utmost and guests can be assured of very comfort to ensure a really relaxed and enjoyable stay be it during the ski season or the warm summer months. Some of the Suites have wonderfully attractive wooden interiors, beams and furnishings - all cleverly designed in a way that is traditional and yet contemporary at the same time. Bathrooms are all spacious with beds and linens of the very highest quality and most rooms benefit from their own private terrace or balcony.

Dining at Hotel Alpenrose is excellent and a highlight of one's stay. The Dolomites is renowned for its high standard of dining, outstanding produce and enviable fine wines and eating at Restaurant Stube Ladina is no exception. Here, one can savour typical Ladino dishes. Chef Paolo Delmonego and his fantastic team have a great passion for their work and really cherish combining delicious local specialities with a variety of more international dishes. The key here is top ingredients sourced from the very best producers together with a veritable wine selection focusing of course on the highly recognised wines of surrounding Trentino and Alto Adige.

The wellness centre at Alpenrose is spacious and has been thoughtfully designed to provide relaxing spa treatments after a rigorous day out on the ski slopes! Here one can completely relax and enjoy the saunas, sensual perfume showers and bubbling hot tub before an invigorating massage or body treatment. Aperitivi can be enjoyed seated at the bar or in any of the spacious lounge areas as well as outside in the fun and atmospheric heated bar.

Arabba is situated with the UNESCO site of the Dolomites and is arguably the best location from which to base oneself for a winter ski holiday. Right on the Sella Ronda, Arabba benefits from excellent snow conditions and with its north facing Portovesco slopes there is some great skiing for the more experienced. From Hotel Alpenrose one can take advantage of organising private guides and instructors to discover some of the exceptionally beautiful slopes, valleys and mountain refuges on offer. In the summer one cannot fail to be impressed by the quite extraordinary expanse of walking trails and for lovers of climbing then this area really is paradise and the top! Hotel Alpenrose is ski in ski out so no need to walk in your uncomfy ski boots or get a bus... simply enjoy the sumptuous breakfast each morning and then clip into your skis and head off!

With the friendly and charming Delmonego family at the helm, every comfort one could wish for and a location to die for, a stay at Hotel Alpenrose is highly recommended. Their motto 'Enter as a guest and leave as a friend' really does live up to its name!
