

IL SALVIATINO

FLORENCE
TUSCANY

In one word - OUTSTANDING! Il Salviatino more than lives up to expectations with its charming staff, elegant and luxurious accommodation, exceptional dining and romantic setting.

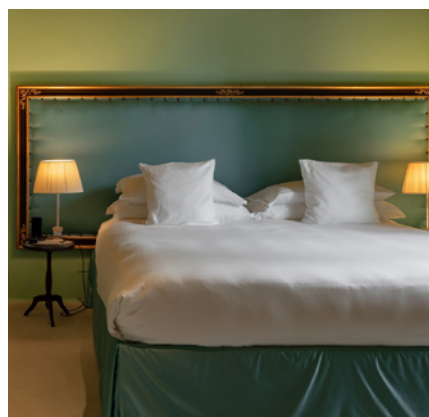

Set in the hills between Florence and Fiesole, Il Salviatino is a truly magical and unique find. With its impressive views of the Duomo whilst surrounded by extensive gardens and woods, guests at Il Salviatino can savour the magic and beauty of nearby Florence whilst being able to enjoy the exceptional hospitality and luxury of this enchanting fifteenth century villa.

Each of the rooms and suites is individually decorated and furnished and each is spacious, luxurious and elegant. Every detail has been thought of at Il Salviatino from Tuscan olive oil toiletries and fine linens to complimentary soft drinks and movie channel. Service is the very best one could wish for and from the moment one arrives at Il Salviatino one is made to feel special. Words cannot describe the splendour of the rooms and suites with their fabulous bathrooms – each being individually styled and decorated. The Ojetti Suite is ideal for honeymooners with its rooftop Jacuzzi with views of the Tuscan hills and direct access to a full size private balcony perfect for al fresco dining. One cannot fail to be impressed by the character and comfort of all rooms be it a deluxe room with views of the Duomo, one of the majestic Green House Suites located in the greenhouses tucked below the Italian Gardens or an impressive Suite in the main villa.

Dining at Il Salviatino is outstanding. The clever balance between authentic Tuscan cuisine using the very best local ingredients combined with more contemporary touches can be savoured in Restaurant Giacomo al Salviatino. Real foodies will love dining here and even the breakfasts are fantastic! As well as the usual buffet, at Il Salviatino one can enjoy breakfast in style with a menu including the finest choice of dishes to start the day served by the highly professional and charming restaurant staff.

A regular complimentary shuttle bus makes visits to Florence a dream! Guests are transported right in to the centre of the city from where one can explore the many sites of Florence and maybe lunch in a local trattoria. Then take the private shuttle back to Il Salviatino and relax by the pool with a book or maybe treat oneself to one of the excellent treatments in the fabulous. After hours of walking and visiting the museums and churches of Florence what could be better?! The philosophy at Il Salviatino is very much based on combining the importance of nature and the environment together with art and culture combining local with international within a relaxed yet intimate environment.

Il Salviatino is special in every way at any time of the year. It really is the perfect destination for anyone seeking somewhere really special in the hills above Florence. With spectacular views, idyllic atmosphere and absolutely excellent service, Merrion is delighted to include Il Salviatino in her portfolio.
