special new property*

La Corte della Maestà

Civita di Bagnoregio, Nr Orvieto, Lazio

Bolstered by whimsical furnishings, an enchanting garden and antiques and art, La Corte della Maestà is a sophisticated haven of tranquility, luxury and exquisite hospitality.

La Corte della Maestà took my breath away the moment I entered. It is a place far from the stress of everyday life where one is transported into another world. Here, the charm of the countryside and the grandeur of a hilltop acropolis frame the Borgo's magical setting and the antique residence of La Corte could not be a more special find. Set between the splendid towns of Orvieto and Viterbo, on the border of Umbria and Lazio, La Corte della Maestà is situated in the suggestive Valle di Civita di Bagnoregio. Two earthquakes and persistent wind and rain have sculpted Civita's striking silhouette which rises up like some remote outpost accessible thanks only to a footbridge.

La Corte della Maestà is the inspired creation of a well renowned Italian psychiatrist and his charming wife. Originally used by Bishop Ferdinando di Castillo as an episcopal seminar between the fifth and sixth centuries, La Corte has been lovingly and thoughtfully restored in keeping with the Borgo's historic and rural past, evoking the enchanting atmosphere of times past and maintaining fragments of its antique frescoes. La Corte is adjacent to the episcopal seat that was active until 1685, with which it shares a large garden and orchard and a part of which is at guests' disposal. Furnished and decorated with not only great taste but also originality and flair, La Corte cannot be too highly recommended as a luxurious boutique hotel and also very special if taken in its entirety as a private villa.

Each of the five spacious suites has been individually decorated and furnished and has its own name. Original features such as frescoes and floor tiles combine perfectly with stylish and unique beds and bathrooms. Discerning clients will love the top quality linen and toiletries, the peace and quiet and the truly magical environment of La Corte della Maestà where it seems that time stands still. The fabulous kitchen oozing in character with large old fireplace and everything one could wish is a great setting for breakfast or, if clients prefer, it can be taken in the enchanting garden beneath the trees. After coming back from dinner in one of the local restaurants guests can relax beneath the stars or in the cooler months snuggle by the open fire in the Wolf's Lair and watch a film on the big flat screen. If one can draw oneself away from Civita and La Corte, then there are endless places to visit in the vicinity including captivating Lake Bolseno, Orvieto and Bagnaia or further afield to Arezzo, Saturnia and even the Tyrennhian sea on the Tuscan coast.

An authentic haven surrounded by uncontaminated nature, La Corte della Maestà is hot off the press and a very special new property ideal to visit at any time of the year so please contact Merrion for more details!
