Tenuta Valgiano

Near Lucca, Tuscany

Steeped in history and character with elegant furnishings, surrounded by gardens, woods and vineyards and enjoying fantastic staff, Tenuta Valgiano is a magical find in a much sought after position of the hills above Lucca.

Built during the Renaissance by the aristocratic Buonvisi family, Tenuta Valgiano commands an enviable position above Lucca amidst 60 hectares of farmland consisting of woods, vineyards, olive and fruit trees and a variety of animals. The wine from Valgiano is renowned worldwide making the villa the perfect destination for wine aficionados! Elegant, steeped in character and history, with stylish and perfectly proportioned rooms throughout, Tenuta Valgiano is a very special home.

Decorated by a well known Italian interior designer, with 18th century Lucchese furniture and spacious bedrooms each with en suite bathrooms, Valgiano is ideal for families as well as a group of couples seeking not only luxury and comfort but also charm and privacy in the hills above Lucca, arguably one of Italy's most magical, yet less discovered cities. With its mature gardens rich in magnificent trees and flower beds, numerous fountains and a neo gothic chapel, there is plenty of space for guests to relax and soak in the splendour of this delightful location. Below the villa is the pool, set within its own garden and overlooking the most important vineyard of the estate which produces Valgiano's Cru.

The kitchen is a dream with its large open fireplace for cooking alla brace and is the real 'heart' of Tenuta Valgiano! Beyond the kitchen is the atmospheric dining room and the magnificent large drawing room with open fireplace, lots of soft sofas and paintings. Each of the bedrooms is individually decorated and furnished with great taste, flair and imagination and all of the bathrooms are spacious and extremely comfortable. There is a fabulous array of artwork throughout, beautiful pieces of furniture, rich colours and the warmth of a much loved home.

Guests will just love meandering outside to one of the many stunning spots and relaxing with a glass of Valgiano wine, taking in the view and the magic of this very special home. And of course there is heaps to do nearby whether one is a culture vulture, a shopaholic, a lover of walking, horse riding or dipping in the Med! Be it Lucca with its myriad of churches and enchanting piazzas, Pietrasanta famous for its marble and sculptures, Forte de Marmi with its designer shops or a visit to one of the many famous Lucchese Villas – there is something for everyone. It may be hard though to draw oneself away from the charm and tranquility of Tenuta Valgiano – not to mention the exceptional cuisine and fine wines!
