The Artists' Suites

Pietrasanta, Tuscany

Stylish décor, absolute luxury and in a glorious location, The Artists' Suites in Pietrasanta are quite a magical place to stay be it as part of a tailor made tour or as a long weekend destination.

In a magical position on Piazza del Duomo, The Artists' Suites offer the most delightful and engaging place to stay in Pietrasanta. With just three suites and three double bedrooms, guests can enjoy a glorious, private and utterly comfortable place to stay in Pietrasanta - the world famed (yet little unknown) city of marble and sculpture.

Each suite and double bedroom is spacious, elegant and beautifully appointed. Neutral, relaxing colours, high quality furnishings and inviting, spacious bathrooms/shower rooms ensure an extremely high level of comfort, tasteful design and intimacy. The large windows, high ceilings and wooden parquet flooring give a feeling of light and space, quality Italian linens and toiletries evoke a truly genuine experience whilst the enchanting communal living room with comfy sofas, fireplace and books adds an additional feeling of warmth, relaxation and sense of being 'at home'.

Each of the suites and rooms is dedicated to a particular artist with Suite Leone being the jewel in the crown with views on one side to the Piazza and on the other to Via Mazzini (otherwise known as Via di Mezzo). The interiors throughout have been tastefully blended using various shades of grey, white and black interspersed with colourful cushions, interesting artwork and interesting 'objets d'art'.

Breakfast is a real highlight at The Artists' Suites! Bar and Pasticceria Duomo has been nominated awards in Gambero Rosso and for guests staying in The Artists' Suites there is a real treat in store in the morning! Sitting outside in the piazza with an array of scrumptious freshly made pasticceria and strong Italian espresso is certainly a great way to start the day before exploring the delights of Pietrasanta. In the evening, back at Bar Duomo, guests can soak up the enchanting atmosphere with an aperitivo accompanied by tasty 'canapès' and watch the world go by. In the summer, one can relish relaxing here on a warm, balmy evening beneath the starlit sky and the buzz of energy as Italians walk the talk and stroll the streets and in the winter, what better than sitting 'al fresco' on a crisp, clear day and taking in the dolce vita atmosphere.

Walk out the door of your stylish and comfortable abode, after your veritable breakfast treats, and there is heaps to discover and explore. Visitors can enjoy prestigious boutiques and ateliers, private sculpture laboratories, modern art exhibitions, frescoes by Botero, four by four adventures amidst the marble clad Apuan Alps (007 here we come!) or maybe a visit to chic Forte di Marmi with its glamorous designer shops.

The Artists' Suites at Pietrasanta really is a very special and memorable place to stay be it for a long weekend or as part of a tailor made tour through Italy. Stylish yet unspoilt, sophisticated but still genuine, relaxed yet interesting, and a charming jewel where Michelangelo relished much of his time and where others have followed in his footsteps.
